

Would you like to be involved in Your Credit Union Committee? We need experienced people like You!

Founded in 1970, located in the heart of Dublin 15, Blanchardstown and District Credit Union serves over 20,000 members. This year we celebrate 50 years supporting the people of Dublin 15 and now we are looking for people who move us on to next 50!

Blanchardstown & District Credit Union is seeking experienced applicants for volunteers' roles on Credit Union Committees. Every credit union needs a team of volunteers dedicated to ensuring a strong and viable future for all of our members. An individual can develop both personally and professionally by volunteering.

The benefits of Credit Union volunteering include:

- ✓ Gaining skills and experience with the credit union team
- ✓ Education and training
- ✓ Personal development
- ✓ Meet new people from the community
- ✓ Work on developmental and business projects
- ✓ Give something back to the community

Business knowledge, Finance, Investments, Information Technology (IT), Marketing or Human Resources (HR) expertise and experience are particularly welcome. However, any ability to make a contribution is appreciated.

Credit Union committees offer an excellent starting point for new volunteers. These committees provide experience, learning and an active role within the credit union.

- ✓ Committee meetings are taking place in the evenings
- ✓ You can start off with one evening a month
- ✓ Training will be provided
- ✓ Volunteers must be living, working or studying in our catchment area (Dublin 15)

Talk to us and find out what your potential contribution could be.
